

DUTIES OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES	The APhA House of Delegates performs a major role in developing policy for the Association. With Delegates representing all segments of the profession, the House serves as a forum for discussion of key issues and articulation of positions reflecting input from a broad cross-section of pharmacy. The APhA House of Delegates is charged by the APhA Bylaws to serve as a legislative body in the development of Association policy. Policies adopted by the House guide the Association and its Board of Trustees in matters relating to educational, professional, scientific, and public health policy. These policies help to establish the role of the profession and its relationship with other elements of the contemporary health care system and set the objectives and future agenda of APhA in the continuous evolution of health care.
COMPOSITION OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES	The approximately 400-member APhA House of Delegates is composed of delegates representing state pharmacy associations, recognized national and federal organizations, APhA's Academies and Board of Trustees, former APhA Presidents, and former Speakers of the APhA House. Each state-affiliated organization appoints two Delegates, plus one additional Delegate for each 200 APhA Members residing in the state. Recognized national organizations and recognized Federal organizations appoint two Delegates each. Each of the Association's three Academies appoints 28 Delegates. Every member of the current APhA Board is a Delegate. Every Delegate must be an APhA member. Delegates are appointed to serve a term of one year, June 1-May 31 of the following year. As a result, the appointment date for submitting delegates is June 1. In 2013, APhA amended its Bylaws (Article IV, Section 2) to increase member engagement in the Association's policy development process of the House of Delegates; delegations that have one or more seats unfilled during both House sessions for 3 consecutive years, shall have those seats removed from their delegate allocation. While the initial delegate allocations outlined in the APhA Bylaws will always stand, the actual number of delegate seats for each delegation may vary from year-to-year based on this change to the Bylaws (Article VI, Section 2, G).
CERTIFICATION OF DELEGATES	Organizations will be able to certify Alternate Delegates as Delegates upon notification to the Secretary of the APhA House of Delegates as late as 1:00PM on Monday. No Alternate Delegates will be seated after the Final Session of the House commences. The Secretary will announce the number of Delegates in attendance and whether a quorum has been reached based on the electronic system or roll call cards. Delegates who arrive after the quorum announcement should check in with APhA staff at the registration table.
OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES	The APhA Bylaws provide that the officers of the APhA House of Delegates shall be the Speaker, the Speaker-elect, and the Secretary. The Speaker and Speaker-elect are elected by the House. The Bylaws provide that the Executive Vice President of APhA shall serve as Secretary. The position of Speaker spans three years: the first year as Speaker-elect (a non-Trustee position) and the subsequent two years as Speaker and Trustee. Elections for Speaker-elect are held on even-numbered years. The Speaker, Speaker-elect, and the Secretary of the House are members of the APhA House of Delegates and, as such, may claim the floor and are entitled to vote.
